Reiki as Spirituality a Circle of Scholars Webinar

About this webinar

As Reiki students, we are often told Reiki practice is a spiritual practice. In this Circle of Scholars Webinar, our academic scholars who have conducted research on Reiki practice will discuss Reiki as Spirituality from the perspective of their research findings.

Considered diverse and multi-dimensional, Reiki as a spiritual practice is understood to be rooted in many spiritual traditions. These traditions include healing, esoteric or secret knowledge and lineage, rites of passage, ritual/spiritual technologies, and more. In addition, personal spiritual exercises practiced, who you are as a person, your cultural identity, and inspiring people and scriptures also inform whether you have a subjective/secular or a religiously informed spirituality. Join us as we open a door to - perhaps - new ways of considering Reiki as spirituality.

Reiki Home supports the development of global community, facilitates connection between its' members, offers access to teachers through webinars and virtual Reiki circles, shares experiences of Reiki in Action and provides the opportunity for physical interaction with one another.

The PGIH invited Suzanne to give a presentation on Full Circle's work, built up over 15 years, bringing complementary therapies onto the wards of two large NHS hospitals, St George's University Hospital in London and also Brighton and Sussex University Hospital.

David Tredinnick MP acknowledged the value of the efforts made by Full Circle and the rigour in design that is the Full Circle model. The whole Group found this presentation to be 'very informative and positive and are looking forward to hearing how this project continues to expand and integrate further within the NHS'.

Suzanne commented, "What a wonderful platform the PGIH has created and for me, it was lovely to be amongst so many like-minded people with the added benefit of the location and the credibility that it can bring a project such as ours."

One of the Connecting Reiki with Medicine practitioners at St George's, Anne-Marie Carratu, is a member of the All Party Parliamentary Group for Integrated Healthcare which means Reiki is being well-represented at the heart of UK government.

The group has collectively worked on and has published a report entitled Integrated Healthcare: Putting the pieces together.

The Connecting Reiki with Medicine project was honored by a visit to St George's Hospital in October 2018 by Phyllis Furumoto, Lineage Bearer of Usui Shiki Ryoho.

Inspired Guidance by Frank Coppieters

April 19, 2019

Now.
Always now.

It is fully possible to connect -- in this moment - with your original kindness, your original goodness.

May your original goodness arise now,
gloriously and naturally, without effort.

Consider that, what you really, really are, cannot be corrupted.

Considering this is a way of reconnecting with your innocence and your purity.

This is your time of resurrection.
Change always comes from deep within.

As you go within and open your heart,
let yourself be guided by some of the great world teachers.

Each one of them can be useful to you.

Your heart is able to merge with the cosmic heart of the Christ, with the cosmic heart of the Buddha, with the cosmic heart of Lord
Krishna and with any teacher who appeals to you.

Real teachers never leave the planet.
They ascend and their love and radiance can be very alive in you.
The same is true for your loved ones.
As they cross beyond the veil, they continue to live in your heart.

We are grateful to the Reiki centers, businesses and Reiki associations who so generously support Reiki Home. Their monthly financial gifts make a difference and help sustain us. THANK YOU!

Easter weekend, Passover, and a full moon today - these are powerful days to establish yourself in the truth and in the love you are.

This is most essential.

Established in the love and truth you are, you are blessed.
Your life is blessed, and the world is blessed.

This is the peace beyond all understanding.
Naturally, everyone is entitled to such peace.
The earth herself is yearning to share her peace and beauty with you.

Those who sow discord in your heart, are betraying you.
You know better.

The miracle of loving embraces everyone.

Be love.
Only love.

Engaged Conversations: What Is Healing?

An Update

The Akademia Team made a decision to actively support Reiki Home's vision of intentionally building community among languages. Two introductory Engaged Conversations were held - one in Spanish (February) and one in Russian (April) on the question What Is Healing? Both were held with excitement and over 100 people participating!

From this beginning, committed small groups are being organized to continue the discussion of this question. The first small group began in Russian. We have two small groups (one 9 members and one 13 members) who committed to participate in three discussions (held every 21 days) to deepen their understanding of What Is Healing?

If you wish to support this work, become a member, a sponsor or make a donation to support this offering so people from all economic situations may participate. You can also make a donation in a foreign currency.

If you have questions about, or interest in, the Akademia Team's work, please Contact Us.

In Awe By: Hilde de Vos

With your mind's eye you see a world

Who are you really?
Do you know?
What does your mind's eye tell you?

Create your version of yourself.
Be your best version.
Be your true authentic self.

Place yourself in a bundle of golden Reiki light
so the best version of yourself has the potential to develop itself and spread its light to all corners of the earth.

Take up your mission
let your light shine on the planet,
